Report Soviets Speeding Plans For Police State

By George Bria

Berlin, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Communists were reported today to be speeding plans for a police state on the Soviet model in eastern Germany.

Details of a plan for "complete Sovietization" of the Russian occupation zone were published by the Berlin Christian Democrat newspaper, Der Tag.

The anti-communist newspaper said Bernard Bechler, interior minister of the state of Brandenburg in the Soviet zone, disclosed the plan in a recent speech.

Bechler, former major on the German general staff who turned Communist after his capture by the Russians in 1943 and joined Moscow's wartime "free Germany committee," was reported to have said: "The time is now ripe for creation of the Socialist state we planned in 1945."

Already Has All Power

According to Der Tag, the Communist-controlled Socialist Unity party which already is wielding virtually dictatorial political power in the Russian zone, now aims at economic dictatorship through its two-year economic plan.

That is the plan which the Communists also have been seeking to impose on Berlin by incorporating it into the Soviet zone and gaining an economic stranglehold over the entire city. The elected anti-communist city government has been backed by the western powers.

A noteworthy feature of Bechler's plan as reported by Der Tag is the centralization of the Russian zone police force "to make the entire police organization of the zone the weapon of the Socialist Unity party."

Forbid Centralization Of Police

The laws of the allied control council for Germany, to which the Russians subscribed, forbid centralization of zonal police.

Bechler also is reported to have proposed creation of a control commission of trusted Communists to push through the plan. The body "should have powers to check on the work of every ministry except the interior ministry," which controls the police.

Der Tag said Bechler also called for a sharpening of the class struggle; strict adherence by Socialist Unity party members to the Marxist-Leninist line with expulsion of any members who were lax or deviated from the line; and close and uncompromising ties with the Soviet Union. He cited Yugoslavia as a horrible example of "the working classes turning away from the Soviet Union."

Sitdown Strike Causes Idleness Of Packing Plant

Ottumwa, Ia., Aug. 14.—(AP)—The big Morrell Packing plant here suspended operations in six departments today after what the company described as "a series of sporadic sitdowns" occurred.

The CIO Packinghouse Workers union challenged company assertions that "sitdowns," "slowdowns" and "attempted sabotage" had taken place.

The union's approximately 3,000 Morrell workers have been without a contract since midweek.

No violence was reported at the plant today but the company said there were some instances where workers "cornered" department foremen and kept them hemmed in while they argued grievances.

Meantime Mrs. Elita Swartz, 33, remained hospitalized as the result of an altercation which took place last night when a plant official sought to relieve a colleague who had been surrounded more than an hour by 25 women workers.

A company statement said plant officials had reported "numerous evidences of sabotage in certain departments involving various metal objects found which might cause serious damage to machinery."

"It seems obvious," the statement said, "that the developments of the past two days are the result of a planned program to stage a series of sitdown strikes and slowdowns in various departments of the plant designed to cripple operations."

Ed Filliman, chief steward of the UPWA-CIO local, said:

"We had no reports of so-called sabotage and I don't believe it. The union denies any sitdown strikes have occurred. When our contract expired the company posted working rules which do not provide any grievance procedures. Our people are just trying to work out their troubles the only way they can."

Taylorville Man Dies As Result Of Gun Wounds

Newport, Ky., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Two Middletown, O., men pleaded guilty today in police court to charges of armed robbery for the holdup-shooting last Monday of Avery L. Hack, 44, of Alton, Ill.

Judge Alfred G. Maybury ordered the pair, Raymond White, 23, and Irvin Turvey, 27, held for grand jury action under $25,000 bonds each.

White identified himself, in a signed statement last night, as the gunman in the holdup. Commonwealth Attorney William J. Wise reported.

Wise said the statement identified Turvey, as White's accomplice in the attack on Hack, who was shot twice and clubbed after reportedly winning about $4,000 gambling. The charge carries a maximum penalty of death.

White's statement said they took $4,540 from Hack. Wise said $4,493 has been recovered.

Vandenberg Considers Foreign Policy Talks

Washington, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) may make a foreign policy broadcast soon to help lay the groundwork for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's vigorous discussion of that issue in the campaign.

Before he left Washington for a vacation, the chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee told a reporter he hopes to outline on a nation-wide hookup his view that Republicans have every right to talk about the "historical aspects" of foreign policy in the campaign.

Agrees With Dewey

As the chief congressional architect of the bipartisan international policy, Vandenberg is in agreement with Dewey and John Foster Dulles that nothing shall be said which might make other nations think this country talks with two voices on current foreign affairs.

But the Michigan senator made it plain the Republicans have no intention of keeping complete silence on an issue they regard as vital to the nation's future.

Dewey himself said a month ago that the Democratic platform contained "extremely partisan and provocative assertions concerning foreign affairs."

He didn't go then into the details he is expected to provide in at least one—and possibly more—campaign speeches.

Historical Aspects To Be Aired

Vandenberg's observation that the "historical aspects" can be aired was regarded as significant in the light of a July 24 statement made by Dewey, after the GOP presidential nominee had conferred with the senator and Dulles, his foreign affairs adviser.

At that time Dewey said the Russian blockade of Berlin had become critical largely because the administration had neglected "elemental principles" in the original occupation agreement.

"Our representatives at London, Yalta and Potsdam unfortunately relied on assumptions rather than specific inter-governmental agreements to define our rights in Berlin," he said.

He alluded to the lack of a written agreement giving the United States, as a partner in the occupation of the German capital, a corridor into Berlin under its own control.

Dewey To Speak In States Where GOP Support Weak

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was reported today to be planning an intensive campaign in states where Republican senatorial candidates face stiff Democratic opposition.

An associate of the GOP presidential nominee told a reporter that Dewey would "expend every effort" to keep the Republicans in control of the Senate. They now outnumber the Democrats 51 to 45.

He added that the Dewey strategists also were planning a vigorous campaign in the hope of piling up what he called "a big prestige-building" majority for the New York governor.

Close senatorial races are in prospect in several states, including Minnesota, Wyoming, Kentucky and West Virginia.

Suspects Plead Guilty To Robbery Of Alton Man

Newport, Ky., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Two Middletown, O., men pleaded guilty today in police court to charges of armed robbery for the holdup-shooting last Monday of Avery L. Hack, 44, of Alton, Ill.

Judge Alfred G. Maybury ordered the pair, Raymond White, 23, and Irvin Turvey, 27, held for grand jury action under $25,000 bonds each.

White identified himself, in a signed statement last night, as the gunman in the holdup. Commonwealth Attorney William J. Wise reported.

Wise said the statement identified Turvey, as White's accomplice in the attack on Hack, who was shot twice and clubbed after reportedly winning about $4,000 gambling. The charge carries a maximum penalty of death.

White's statement said they took $4,540 from Hack. Wise said $4,493 has been recovered.

AP Survey Shows Changes In Cost Of Living

New York, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Big eastern cities are taking the worst beating from the high cost of living. It is almost as bad on the west coast. Southerners can live a little cheaper. The Midwest is getting off the easiest, although taking a drubbing, too.

A 16-city survey by the Associated Press today shows that in some places, particularly in the Midwest, the cost of some foods is actually lower than last August. Surprisingly "low" prices are reported here and there on some foods.

But in almost every city the meat bill is about 25 per cent higher than last year and from 170 to 200 per cent higher than in 1939.

In the average city you pay 17 per cent more for bread than last August and 75 per cent more than in 1939.

Eggs Average 72c Doz.

Your milk has soared everywhere for an average of 17 per cent above last year and 91 per cent above pre-war.

On the other hand, you pay on the average only 72 cents a dozen for eggs, against 71 cents last August. Of course, you paid only 20 cents in 1939.

Butter is only six per cent above last year, but a whopping 162 per cent above 1939.

A can of tomatoes has gone up 10 per cent in the year, and 132 per cent since 1939.

Small Crowd Hears Taylor At State Fair Saturday

By Louis J. Kramp

Springfield, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho and top state nominees of the Progressive party today bid for Wallace-Taylor ticket votes in GOP-dominated downstate Illinois with State Fair speeches urging defeat of Republican and Democratic leaders.

A small crowd in the state fairgrounds grandstand heard Taylor, the Progressive nominee for vice president, belittle fear of war with Russia. He ended his half hour speech by singing "It's A Long Way To Tipperary" while his wife Dora simultaneously sang, "What You Gonna Do When The Rent Comes 'Round?"

Grant W. Oakes of Chicago, international president of the CIO United Farm Equipment and Metal Workers union and the Progressive nominee for governor, demanded that Republican Gov. Dwight H. Green call a special state legislative session to enact laws cutting high prices and halting rental housing evictions. He specifically urged local rent control laws.

Curtis MacDougall, Northwestern University journalism professor who is the Wallace-Taylor nominee for Republican C. Wayland Brooks' Senate seat, declared both major parties are having a contest "to see who can out-shriek the other in denouncing Communists."

The Illinois Progressives plan to file petitions Monday to get on the state ballot in Illinois, which is one of the key states in the new party's Nov. 2 election strategy. They are expected to cut into Democratic totals, especially in Chicago, and to weaken Democratic chances of unseating Green and Brooks.

William Miller of Chicago, state secretary of the Progressives, said he will file a stack of petitions five feet high, containing 75,268 signatures from 88 of the 102 Illinois counties. A minimum of 25,000 is needed, with 200 from each of at least 50 counties.

Taylor said recent events prove that Soviet Russia isn't able "to fight or threaten anybody," and that Soviet citizens aren't "anxious to give their lives to spread Communism over the world."

He said the United States is in "no danger of being attacked by Russia," and he predicted that the Yugoslav defiance of Russia, "which saw Tito kick up his heels," can happen elsewhere behind the iron curtain.

Only about 300 persons were in the grandstand, which seats about 10,000, when the program began. Nearly 1,000 were there as Taylor ended his talk, but custodians said many of these were paying customers who came for the harness races starting a few minutes later.

Taylor was welcomed personally by Harry Eielson, Springfield mayor who is a Republican. Eielson said the appearance of the Progressives nominees was "a distinction" for the hometown of Abraham Lincoln.

Taylor replied that it was the first time since he became Henry Wallace's running mate that he had been personally welcomed by a mayor.

Victory Over Rebels May Mean New Greek Cabinet

Athens, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The prospect of victory over the rebel forces in northern Greece precipitated today a demand within the Liberal party of Premier Themistokles Sophoulis for a new government to replace the present coalition cabinet.

The demand was made by a group of dissatisfied Liberal members of parliament headed by Deputy Party Leader Sophocles Venizelos, a former premier.

Venizelos revealed the desire of the dissident Liberals for an end to the coalition last night.

Sophoulis, who became premier in September, 1947, replied he did not want to be bothered with such questions while attention is centered on the military situation.

American demand for a more representative Greek government spurred the formation of the Sophoulis coalition cabinet.

A general staff communique reported new attacks from inside Albania on national forces closing a trap on the Communist-led guerrillas in the Grammos area. Artillery was said to be shelling the army from Trestenik, two miles inside Albania.

Babe Ruth Is Still On 'Critical' List

New York, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Babe Ruth remained on the critical list at his hospital today but his pulmonary complications have cleared. These complications, developing out of a cold, caused a sudden relapse Wednesday.

The morning bulletin from the Memorial hospital center for cancer and allied diseases said:

"Babe Ruth spent a somewhat restless night. Although pulmonary complications have cleared and heart action still remains strong, his condition is critical."

A mid-afternoon bulletin said "there has been no change in his condition since this morning."

Fans who idolize the Babe as the greatest home run hitter in baseball history stood for a minute of silent prayer for him at several major league ball parks last night.

2 Negroes Charged With Robbery

Chicago, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Two Negroes charged with the armed robbery of $18,000 in currency and money orders from three Chicago Western Union offices were returned here today from Detroit.

The men, Mack Moody, 27, and Will Johnson, 27, were arrested in the Michigan city Thursday. Detective Timothy O'Connell said they made an oral statement confessing the robberies, which they said netted them $417 in cash and $18,000 in money orders and travelers checks, which they cashed.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO ASSAULT CHARGE

Indianapolis, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Kelly Pettillo, 1935 winner of the 500-mile Indianapolis Motor Speedway race, pleaded not guilty today to charges of assault and battery with intent to kill in the slaying of his former secretary.

He was arraigned before Judge Pro Tem Sherwood Blue in Criminal court. No trial date was set for Pettillo, who is free on bond.

Seek Backing For Testimony Of Witness

Washington, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Missing servants and lie detector machines entered into the congressional spy hunt today as investigators sought backing for testimony of a key witness.

The 52-year-old Russian schoolma'am who jumped from a window of the Soviet consulate in New York where she said she was imprisoned got into the case officially. An operative of the House committee on un-American activities served a subpoena upon her in a New York hospital.

Members of the committee, convinced that one or another of the witnesses already questioned has committed perjury, devoted a week-end recess in the hearings to trying to run down the culprit.

None of the committeemen would talk for publication but most of them expressed concern over the likelihood that somebody has lied to them under oath.

Chambers Testifies

Whittaker Chambers, an editor of Time magazine who said he used to be a Communist courier, has testified that a Communist underground operated in wartime Washington dealing with some important government figures. Among those he named under oath were Donald Hiss and Alger Hiss. Both of them, he said, were leaders of small cells in the underground movement.

Of those named by Chambers, the Hiss brothers asked for a prompt hearing, waived their Constitutional rights, and denied the charges categorically. They testified they didn't even know Chambers. Unlike some of the other witnesses, Alger and Donald Hiss did not decline to answer questions on Constitutional grounds.

Donald Hiss, a former State Department official now a Washington attorney, told the committee either he or Chambers should be put in jail for lying under oath.

Alger Hiss Knowing Chambers

Alger Hiss, now president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, said he had "never laid eyes" on Chambers.

The Justice Department is studying the transcript of the testimony and committee members have demanded perjury action against someone.

Since Chambers has been one of the star witnesses for the committee, members said privately that "half our case rests on the integrity of his testimony."

"Frankly," one of them told reporters, "I can't figure out who is telling the truth. The testimony has been convincing on both sides."

Chambers has been questioned secretly by members since he first testified. The questioners said they have been unable to find a flaw in his story. On the other hand, they added, they have not been able to find a thin spot in the testimony of Alger Hiss or his brother.

Several members think a lie detector test might help. They said Chambers has offered to submit to such a test. They said, however, that the results of a lie detector test are not conclusive.

Man Claimed Dead Comes Home Again

International Falls, Minn., Aug. 14.—(AP)—An International Falls man, declared legally dead in 1903, shook hands with his brother this week after a separation of 55 years.

Leonard McCracken, 75, International Falls, and his brother, Henry, 73, Gowrie, Iowa, parted in 1893. Leonard left the family home in North Vernon, Ind., and went west. When their father died in 1902, a fruitless search was made for Leonard. The courts declared him dead when the father's estate was probated in 1903.

Leonard finally wrote a sister, Mrs. Sarah Spear, Nebraska, Ind., in 1937. She notified Henry and the reunion was arranged 11 years later.

GRAB YOUR HATS, FOLKS; NEXT TRIP MAY TAKE US TO MOON

Dr. Dinsmore Alter, director of Griffith Observatory in Los Angeles, is taking visitors on an imaginary trip to the moon in an imaginary spaceship. He describes it as a preview of what human beings may actually do while many who read this still will be living.

The Navy predicts, apparently with straight face, that it will get unmanned rockets to the moon within a year. Scientists agree that this would be a first step essential to sending human beings 238,000 miles into the stratosphere, with at least a theoretical hope of getting back alive.

Up on the moon, Dr. Alter says, there isn't enough oxygen to sustain human life. If you ever made such a trip you'd have to take along your own breathing air. Temperature varies from more than 200 degrees above zero by day to more than 200 below zero at night; so don't forget your insulation.

On the moon there is no atmospheric screen against ultra-violet rays, which suggests a plentiful supply of sun-tan lotion, though these rays may be deflected by the thick suit of lead you'll need for protection from cosmic rays. Apparently you won't find food or water, so better pack a hamper and fill a thermos bottle.

It sounds fantastic to talk of such things deadpan in terms of "when." Obviously it is as impossible to fly to the moon by rocket ship as it would be to live, work and achieve there if one could make the trip. Obviously it's almost as impossible to get there as it would be to get back—and what's the use of making a one-way trip? There wouldn't even be glory, since nobody would ever know one had succeeded.

It sounds fantastic and it is fantastic. But the man who conducts these imaginary trips, and discusses their counterparts as possibilities for a nearby generation, is an eminent scientist.

It is hard to believe that Dr. Alter can be on sound ground. But then, it was not many years ago that the foremost physicists signed their names to textbooks that said the atom is the indivisible unit of matter. Yet thousands—tens of thousands—have watched while atoms were shattered all into smithereens.

The echoes still ring from learned explanations why no vehicle occupied by man could move faster than sound. Yet American planes have done that little thing, not once but several times. Just the other day a high general and a high admiral agreed with the head of a foremost aircraft factory that, within five to seven years, man will fly at a speed between one and two thousand miles an hour. If you have no pencil and paper handy, that is a speed of from 17 to 33 miles a minute.

All that delays us, says the admiral, is engine power. And experts now talk without blushes about using atomic fission to power airplanes, which would provide power beyond the wildest dreams of man prior to 1945.

As Hamlet remarked: There are more things in Heaven and earth than are dreamt of in your philosophy, or ours.

8 Morgan County Students Finish University Work

Eight Morgan county students are among nearly 1200 completing requirements for degrees from the University of Illinois with the end of the summer session. The students and their degrees follow:

George Francis Bobbitt of Chapin, bachelor of science in accountancy; George Robert Coraor, 919 North Main street, master of arts in chemistry; Jack Rausch Hartong, 1337 South Clay avenue, master of arts in education; David Williamson Hauck, 714 South Church street, bachelor of science in division of special services for war veterans; Richard Yates Rowe, Jr., 1152 West State street, bachelor of science in law; Dorothy Crabtree Rueff, Jacksonville route one, bachelor of science in home economics education; Ralph Jones Welles, 129 Chestnut street, master of science in education; Forrest Merritt Moore of Waverly, master of science in education.

Examinations closing the eight weeks session ended Aug. 14. This year the university again is on a normal academic schedule, leaving the war-time accelerated program which had a long summer semester. Fall activities begin Sept. 9 with freshman week, and classes start again Sept. 16.

Society To Fill Jars With Fruit For Orphanage

Bluffs—Mrs. Charles Williams was hostess to the Trinity Lutheran church guild Thursday afternoon for its annual picnic. Mrs. Fred Heitkamp, president of the guild, presided over a short business session and fruit jars to be filled for Nachusa Orphanage were distributed.

Several guests were present to enjoy a musical program presented by Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Dave Orchard and Mrs. Louis Ommen. Several contests were conducted by Mrs. Francis Meier.

A picnic lunch of sandwiches, cookies and tea and coffee were enjoyed at the close of the afternoon. Guests from Bluffs including Mrs. Clyde Williams, Mrs. Glenn Brockhouse and Mrs. Margaret Watson.

Court To Decide If Child Should Have Operation

Chicago, Aug. 14.—(P)—A 22-month-old baby girl played happily today as legal and medical authorities sought to decide whether or not to perform an operation that might give her a chance to live.

The child is Pamela Frances Lamphreys. She was born with a rare deformity—her bladder is outside her body—that requires major surgery to correct. Doctors have given the child two to three years to live without the operation.

Her parents, estranged over the question of operation, laid the problem in the lap of Judge Walter R. O'Malley of Suburban Aurora, sitting in superior court.

The father, Fred, 23, a shipping clerk, filed suit to compel the mother, Irene, 21, to agree to the operation.

Said the mother in court: "I live for my child. I want her as long as I can have her. I'd lose her forever if she were operated on."

Said the father: "I love her just as much. I want her to have a chance to live."

Husband Hunter, Prospective Groom House Hunting

Camden, N. J., Aug. 14.—(P)—Mrs. Annette Newman and the winner of her husband hunting derby were "looking like mad" today for a six or seven room house.

Mrs. Newman figures she'll need a place that large for the six children she'll be taking care of after the wedding Thursday or Friday.

The husband hunting derby began when the 30-year-old Camden divorcee entered a newspaper office and asked if she could advertise for a husband.

The editor listened to her story and then wrote an article in his paper about Mrs. Newman.

She wanted a husband who didn't spend all his time "guzzling beer" and preferably one who was a widower with children.

DANES EXPORT MEDICINE
Copenhagen.—(P)—Denmark imported most of her medicines before World War II. Now she is exporting medicine to most of the countries of Europe and has found a new market in China. Prewar imports came mostly from Germany, but the medical industry there was destroyed by bombs.

Two large penicillin factories have been built recently and Denmark expects to export large quantities before the end of the year. Danish laboratories are also working on new types of streptomycin which they believe may be better than that from America.

Hard starting of an automobile may be the result of a leaking intake manifold gasket, or a leak in the cylinder-head gasket.

Boyle's Column

The Peebles Try A Separate Vacation

By Hal Boyle

New York.—(P)—Nervous tension, that forerunner of the ulcer, had Wilbur Feeble in its clutch.

He was fretful at the office and mooped at home so much that his wife, Trellis Mae, finally told him, "I want you to go see Dr. Phineas Brainpan, the psychiatrist. He'll find out what's worrying you. I met his wife at a bridge party—and she's nice."

Wilbur argued against going to Dr. Brainpan, but finally capitulated. Secretly, like all men, he had a wish to find what a trip to a psychiatrist really was like.

When he returned, Trellis Mae asked: "Did he have you lie down on a couch in a dark room and ask you questions?"

"No," said Wilbur. "Was he supposed to?"

"Never mind. What happened?"

"Well, we just talked for a while. We finally both agreed I wasn't mad at my mother and wasn't suffering from a suppressed desire to murder my father."

Separate Vacations
"What did he decide was wrong with you?" asked Trellis Mae.

"Well, you aren't going to like this," began Wilbur. "But he said you and I ought to take separate vacations this year."

"H-m-m-m," said Trellis Mae.

"Dr. Brainpan said it was a good thing for married people occasionally. Wilbur went on. 'As a matter of fact he said his wife and he are having separate vacations. She's going to the Olde Wildwood Dude Ranch Monday. He's staying in town.'"

"Okay," said Trellis Mae gamely. "I'll go to that darned old dude ranch, too, and you stay in town and have a rest."

At first the prescription worked wonderfully for Wilbur. He revelled in his freedom. But after seeing a few shows and reading a couple of books, he found time dragging. All his boon companions were out of town.

He went to the beach, but Trellis Mae wasn't there to tell him when he had had enough sun. He came home parboiled as a lobster. For three days he lay in bed until the skin began to peel.

Began Cooking Own Meals
Weary of eating alone in restaurants, he began cooking his own meals. The dishes piled higher in the sink, dust gathered on the furniture.

One morning when Wilbur had finished breakfasting on three crackers smeared with peanut butter and mustard—all that was left in the refrigerator—the mailman brought him a postcard.

It was a picture of Trellis Mae and the other guests at the Dude Ranch. She had scribbled on the back: "Don't forget to defrost the refrigerator. Having wonderful time. Wish you were here."

Wilbur studied the picture. He scratched his itchy sunburn. He looked at the picture again. Trellis Mae was laughing, and her face was turned toward a dark-haired handsome man next to her.

Restlessly Wilbur got up and walked to the kitchen. He put a glass under the faucet. The water hit the pile of dirty dishes and splashed over his pajamas. He came back and looked at the postcard picture again.

"Tenderfoot On The Way"
Two hours later the following telegram was delivered to Trellis Mae at Ye Olde Wildwood Dude Ranch:

"Tell the horses another tenderfoot is on the way."

The 10th word in the telegram was "Love" and it was signed "Wilbur."

When Wilbur arrived, Trellis Mae met him and said: "Guess you got here on the train before you? Dr. Brainpan."

"I thought he believed in separate vacations," said Wilbur.

"Oh, he does," said Trellis Mae. "But he explained he decided it was selfish to stay in the city when his wife was up here and probably lonely. Wasn't that thoughtful of him?"

"I wonder," said Wilbur. "You wonder what?"

"I wonder," said Wilbur. "Just how many miles there are right now in Dr. Brainpan's sink."

Hay Fever Victims Can Now Blame Suffering On Snow

Newark, N. J., Aug. 14.—(P)—Hay fever victims have found another place to lay the blame for their suffering.

This time it's the famed blizzard of goron and ensuing snows, which helped make things tough for the sneezers and sniffers, the Jersey Allergy society said yesterday.

The society explained that the arch-villain, ragweed pollen, will be worse than usual this year because last winter's heavy snows left the soil "all too fertile" for the pollinating weed.

Dr. Frank L. Rosen of Newark, publication chairman of the society, described a few "do's and don'ts" which a person sensitive to the pollen may minimize its effects.

Don't's:
Violent emotion, alcoholic or iced drinks, the country, wide-open bedroom windows at night, sudden changes of temperatures, use of paints or insecticides, eating of foods which experience has shown will cause allergic reactions.

Do's:
Stay on the job, particularly if you live in the suburbs and work in the city.
And hope that it doesn't snow as much next winter.

Miss Betty Leach, Robert Blair Wed At Springfield

Chandlerville—Miss Betty Leach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leach of Petersburg, and Robert Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Blair, were united in marriage on Aug. 7 at the Lutheran church in Petersburg, with the Rev. G. C. Garth of Springfield officiating. The double-ring service was used.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hitchcock of Atterberry.

For her marriage, the bride wore a street-length dress of white eye-let, with accessories of white and brown. Her corsage was of red roses. A dinner honoring the couple was held in Springfield following the wedding. The couple left for a wedding trip to Missouri, after which they will be at home in Petersburg.

Lonesome, frightened and bawling for his mother, this Brahma calf was marooned on the loading dock of the Missouri Pacific Railroad at Frankfort, Kan., when the rain-swollen Vermillion river flooded the town. The train behind the calf was also marooned.

Line of Fashion Molded To Please American Standards

There is a newer look for this fall which makes the most of the best features of last year's revolutionary and truly named "new look."

American Women are always eager to accept departures in fashion design—but they must be flatteringly wearable for the many not the limited few. So it is that in catering to the demand for reasonable clothes, that designers have calmed and modified the extremes of '47 into the lovely fashions of '48-49.

Streamlining has proved too good a thing for the American woman's figure for her to be willing to give it up and in keeping with it, the longer skirt has won her devotion now that much excess bulk has been taken out of it. For general daytime wear 12 and 13 inches from the floor is widely accepted, while for afternoon and evening wear ankle length or at the most 10 inches from the floor looks right.

Great delight is being taken in the creation of dresses which make no pretense at being "suits" or "costumes."

Rich In Detail

They are rich in infinite detail and prove a lovely revelation when uncovered by the removal of one of the season's handsome coats. The slender dress under a long fully flared coat is the "typical" fashion of the season ahead. At the most, dress skirts are two yards wide around the hemline, while the devices of straight fronts with all fulness worked into back treatments of pleats or flares give the illusion of narrowness.

It has taken a few seasons to win acceptance, but the natural shoulder without benefit of padding (or just a little) is coming into its own. Very interesting is the seamless shoulder which so aptly carries out the narrower silhouette because it is logically in line with the narrower sleeve—the close cap-like hairdo and smaller hat. In short—the formula is:—a smaller top from the waistline up.

In dresses there is Empire... Directoire... and for the most part Victorian influence. A strong revival is seen of luxury trimmings such as braids, fringe, beading, fur. Rich fabrics follow through with brocades, heavy satins, velvets, taffetas, laces, and broadcloth smoothly dark, the darlings of the season.

New Angles

Where there is great variety in skirt silhouettes ranging from pencil slimmest to voluminous back fullness, with flares manifest from a slim hipline, waistlines are for the most part normal though emphasized by novelty belts such as fur. The bodice is easy and comfortable, with dolmans extending from bloused backs.

Evening gowns are truly gowns in the full sense of the word—with décolletés deep, shoulder straps bejeweled, short trains, and fabrics at their richest.

Coats and suits forego extreme tendencies this year in favor of a smooth line. Suit jackets keep within the 25-28 inch length and their skirts are always slim. Coats frequently flare at back, and the box and princess silhouettes are beautifully done.

Best liked dress colors are liqueur green, purple, old gold, deep gray, gingery browns and blues of turquoise and peacock hues. Coat and suit colors favor forest greens, earthy browns, grays and wines.

The type of clothes the women of this country consider the basis of their wardrobe is as at home in town as in the country. And the approaching fall and winter will see many tweeds and knitted fashions of spectator mien. Dresses, suits and coats—all of which are also very appropriate for travel—comprise a very particular and popular proportion of wardrobe selection.

Color Card

The thing that makes the classic fabrics look new is all in the coloring! Grays are darker, greens and reds have blackish undertones, and the clay shades are so smart. Navy is fast becoming a year round color, appearing in many fall and winter lines, often contrasted with cocoa brown to great advantage.

Whether you loved or resisted the "new look" of 12 months ago—you'll quickly take to the newer look of fall and winter 48-49. Because clothes have never held a richer promise of beauty and flattery for every woman on every American scene.

A night cooling fan brings cool sleeping comfort

IF YOUR HOUSE IS A TWO-STORY HOME

OR A HOUSE WITH ALL ROOMS ON ONE FLOOR

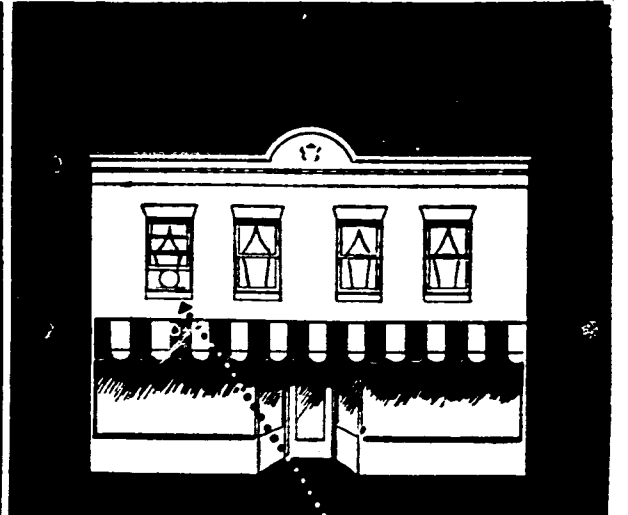

OR A SMALL OR LARGE APARTMENT

FAN IN ATTIC

FAN IN ATTIC OR WINDOW

FAN IN WINDOW

HOW IT WORKS

1 The summer sun beats down on the roof of your home. The air in your rooms heats up to an uncomfortable degree.

2 When the sun sets, outside temperatures sink. But the temperature of your rooms may stay 10° to 20° higher than outside temperature.

3 A night-cooling fan blows this hot air out and draws cool night air in and circulates it through every room in your home or apartment, lowering room temperatures, and bringing you cool sleeping comfort.

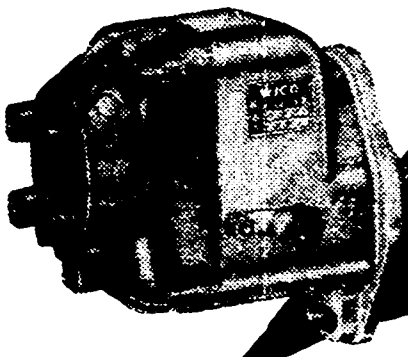

Yes, there's a night-cooling fan to bring you full, restful sleep these hot nights regardless of where you live. There are large attic fans for the larger homes, portable window fans for the one-story home or apartment.

All night-cooling fans work the same way. They blow the hot air out and draw the cool night air in, filling your room with coolness... bringing comfort and restful sleep.

The cost is very reasonable. Most fans require but little installation, and can be installed in only a few minutes time. The nightly operating cost is less than the cost of a bottle of pop.

Cain Brothers Farm Purchased By John Ginder

Two auction sales took place Saturday morning at the south door of the court house.

The first sale, at 10 a. m., was of a four-room house located on West Plum street, Mound Heights addition to Jacksonville, owned by Prina Reische. It was sold to Thomas M. Stubblefield of Jacksonville for $2,000.

A Morgan county farm of 497½ acres was sold at 11 p. m. for $140 an acre. This totaled $69,650. It was purchased by John Ginder, Arenzville. The farm has about 350 acres of tillable land. It had been in the Cain family for 84 years. John and Thomas Cain of Cain Brothers partnership were the sellers.

Thomson and Thomson were attorneys for Prina Reische and Edward J. Flynn was attorney for Cain Brothers. Middenhoff Brothers were auctioneers for both sales.

Clean Machines Improve Quality Of Dairy Output

Urbana, Ill.—Cream separators that are not properly and regularly cleaned and sterilized can be the cause of poor quality in milk and cream, points out R. V. Hussong, dairy bacteriologist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

The best way to keep the separator clean is to wash and sterilize it after each use—that is, twice a day. It is common practice on many farms to wash the separator only once a day, usually after the morning milking. The bowl then stands overnight filled with milk or a mixture of milk and water. During this time millions of bacteria develop and pass into the skim milk and cream when the machine is next used.

Hussong says it's best not to mix freshly separated cream with cold cream. Tests show that when fresh, warm cream is added to cold cream the quality is always lower. The best way is to cool the fresh cream before adding it to the cold cream. The warm cream raises the temperature of the cold cream, promoting the growth of bacteria that produce abnormal flavors.

Dr. Hussong stressed three points that should help dairymen produce quality dairy products: Keep all equipment that touches the milk or cream clean and sterile. Cool the milk or cream quickly to 50 or 60 degrees F., and hold it at that temperature. And deliver milk to the market every day and the cream two or three times a week.

Subjects Object to His Luxury

Reported to be the second richest man in the world, the Gaekwar of Baroda, left, ruler of a princely state in India, is being urged to abdicate his throne. Led by Premier Dr. Jivraj Mehta, the people have demanded the Gaekwar's resignation, claiming that he spends huge sums on luxurious living while the people are in the grip of a terrible famine. The Gaekwar is shown with wife, the Rane, and son.

States Righters Can't Qualify For Missouri Ballot

Washington, Aug. 14.—(P)—The states rights Democrats can't challenge President Truman in his home state of Missouri next November.

The new party's headquarters was informed it can't qualify its presidential ticket for the ballot by the Aug. 23 deadline.

Making this known today, W. Austin Seay of Winona, Miss., director of the anti-Truman group's Washington headquarters, told a reporter, however, that states righters are checking up ballot possibilities in other states.

The group is investigating ballot laws in Kentucky, Colorado and elsewhere, Seay said.

The Missouri situation was outlined to Seay in a message from national headquarters in Jackson, Miss., he reported.

The message said that Missouri law provides that a new party, to get on the ballot, must have 22,000 notarized signatures by Aug. 23, or hold a state convention truly representative of the whole state at which electors would have to be named from each congressional district and two at large.

Cars Damaged in Accident Friday

A 1947 Chevrolet sedan driven by Mrs. W. F. Witham, 1329 West College avenue, was considerably damaged Friday evening in a collision on South Kosciusko street, between West State and Morgan streets.

Elmer Johnson, 724 North East street, was pulling out from the curb in a 1936 Chevrolet sedan, according to a report made to the police department. The Witham and Johnson cars collided, but neither driver was injured.

The Witham car sustained damage to the right rear fender, hub cap, and scratches on the door and panel. The bumper of the Johnson car was damaged.

RED HARVEST THIEVES SENTENCED

Brigadier of a state cotton farm, V. I. Borodkin, has been given seven years for cutting barley from state land and taking it to his home. Nurali Mansurov of a collective farm was given five years for stealing 47 kilograms of barley from a collective farm. The names of three others facing trial were listed.

Why do we have so very many farmers among our customers? There can be only one sound answer to that question: the services of the Elliott State Bank must have a definite value to the farmers of this territory.

"Good Luck To The Champ"

John W. English, plucky Jacksonville Soap Box Derby champion, will match his wits and his racer against the best racers in the world Sunday afternoon in Akron, Ohio. Young English qualified for the Akron finals when he sped his car to victory in the Jacksonville race several weeks ago. The words "Journal Courier, Jacksonville, Ill." are painted on the sides of his racer. English left for Akron last Wednesday. When he arrived he was taken to Derby Village, a camp several miles outside of Akron. No one is permitted at the camp except contestants.

The camp has been set up for every recreation a young man might desire. The boys are given special food so that they will be in tip-top shape for the Sunday race.

Young English made his qualifying run on Derby Downs in Akron on Friday afternoon. Reports from Akron indicated that the Jacksonville champion made excellent time.

Saturday night English will attend the "Champion Banquet." This banquet, attended by all the contestants is one of the highlights of the trip.

Conducted tours through Akron are part of the three day program. On these tours, the boys receive gifts from Akron manufacturers.

The hopes of the people of Jacksonville will be with John English, Sunday, and the Journal Courier joins with them to wish "good luck to the champ."

Its Crash Alerted Airfield

Crewmen at the Mustin Field Naval Base, in Philadelphia, saw a plane approach for a landing. Crash crews raced to the scene, when it wobbled slightly as it circled. The plane crashed, but no one was hurt—it turned out to be this model plane, which Chief Petty Officer Joseph Ondrechen holds. The Navy was slightly embarrassed.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Aug. 14.—(P)—Hogs ended a week of generally advancing prices with quotations nominally steady today in a $23.25 to $30.00 range. Cattle and sheep also were steady.

Strength in the pork market helped hogs. Pork loins advanced to $1.00 to $2.00 and fresh regular pork trimmings gained $4.00 this week. Although light weight butcher hogs ended the week only steady, hogs jumped $1.00 to $3.00. Sows comprised the bulk of offerings.

The all-time peak for steers, $41.25, was equalled this week in the cattle section. The peak was first established last January. But most cattle prices eased late in the week, ending with little change from last week-end. Cows closed lower.

Spring lambs and yearlings lost about $1.00 this week.

First Lt. Julian P. Anderson, plane commander, of 304 E. Orleans St., Paxton, Ill., was listed among the injured.

A Hannibal, Mo., air force sergeant, ex-Sgt. Charles R. Jackson, radio operator, also was in the list of dead issued by the Air Force yesterday. Cpl. James M. Beran, passenger, Muscoda, Wis., was among those listed as injured.

The plane crashed on six miles south of Walker base, where its crewmen were stationed as members of the 509th bomb wing.

Search For Plane Carrying Woman To Kin's Bedside

Quincy, Ill., Aug. 14.—(P)—Pilots and Missouri state police searched today for a small plane more than six hours overdue here in a dash to bring a Kansas City, Mo., woman to her critically ill mother's bedside.

The plane, enroute from Kansas City, left Kirksville, Mo., shortly after three o'clock this morning. In it were Mrs. Mabel Lenge of Kansas City and the pilot, George E. Johnson of Kansas City.

Mrs. Lenge was enroute to visit her mother, Mrs. Lulu Rust, critically ill in a hospital here.

Dennis Freshman, a mechanic at the Kirksville airport, said that Johnson had stopped there for gasoline and phoned the Quincy airport for weather information about 3 a. m. (CST).

Freshman said the pilot told him that he had been warned of fog conditions at Quincy, but decided to continue his flight anyway, believing the fog would lift as day broke.

The mechanic said the plane took off in a normal manner but that later, the motor "sounded peculiarly fast, as if in a power dive."

Murder Instincts Can Be Traced To Childhood

London, Aug. 14.—(P)—The teenage sex killer vents his murderous urge because something went wrong in his grammar school days.

That is the theory of Dr. George E. Gardner, Harvard social relations lecturer. He sets it out in a paper to be read at today's session of the International Conference on Child Psychiatry.

Dr. Gardner says a child is born with two driving forces—the sex instinct, which makes him love other people, and the aggressive, destructive instinct which makes him want to harm or kill them.

Both give pleasure in fulfillment, he says. Both develop as a child grows up. The aggressive instinct gives him quite a tussle.

Lions Prepare For Festival Sept. 9-10

Officials of the Jacksonville Lions club announced Saturday that plans are rapidly being completed for the Lions' third annual festival, which will be held Sept. 9 and 10 at the Morgan county fair grounds.

Dick Lukeman, general chairman, reported that contracts have been signed to bring outstanding entertainers from the radio world for the evening performances.

The festival is a community project sponsored by the Lions club. Net proceeds will be shared with the Morgan County Agricultural Fair and the Jacksonville Community Health fund.

All members of the club have been appointed to serve on various committees during the festival.

On Thursday night, Sept. 9, at 8 o'clock, the WLS show will be presented on the stage in front of the grandstand. Featured entertainers will include Jimmie James, Ted Morse (known to radio listeners as Otto or Little Genevieve) with the WLS Rangers.

An entirely new show from WSM at Nashville, Tenn., will be presented Friday evening, Sept. 10, starring the Duke of Paducah with Guy Willis and his Oklahoma Wranglers. Other novelty acts are billed for the program each evening.

Besides entertainment from the stage there will be several rides including a ferris wheel and merry-go-round. Several popular concessions will be operated by the Lions.

Suddes Will Not Run For Office

Jerseyville — Attorney John W. Suddes, whose name was written in on the Democratic primary ballot as the party's candidate for State's Attorney, filed a written notice of withdrawal as such a candidate in the office of County Clerk Grover Pearce Wednesday.

There was no regular candidate for the Democratic nomination at the last primary and Suddes' name was written in by eighty-six Democratic voters. Atty. Alvin H. Pettit was nominated by the Republicans for the office in a three corner battle with the present incumbent State's Attorney Frank A. Reiser and Attorney Wilbur Hacker.

The withdrawal of Attorney Suddes leaves Attorney Pettit without opposition in the election next November.

Lloyd Mangrum Ameri's Top Pro Golfer

Chicago, Aug. 13 —(P)—Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, with earnings of $25,944.99, is the No. 1 leading money winner among the nation's golf professionals who follow the professional golfers association golden trail.

Mangrum, who represents Chicago's Tam O'Shanter country club on the golfing circuit, returned there last week to win first prize and $3,000 in the All-American tournament, and pass Ben Hogan in the financial standings by a scant $647.99. Hogan has earned $25,297 so far this year.

The figures were compiled today by the PGA headquarters and included competition of August 6th. Bobby Locke of South Africa is third with $22,893.33, Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., is fourth with $20,043.33. Skip Alexander, Lexington, N. C., is fifth with $14,918.93.

Although official records only credit Mangrum with $5,000 for his efforts in Chicago, the mustachioed Purple Heart hero won $22,500 in all. In addition to his first place money in the All-American, he received $5,000 additional from George S. May, Tam O'Shanter president, for being the leading money winner to date: $2,500 also from May for breaking the course record, and $10,000 for his victory in the subsequent international championship, which also was played over the Tam O'Shanter course.

These figures are not included in the official money earnings since bonus awards are never counted and the international was limited to a field of less than 32 players. Events such as this are excluded from the official standings in keeping with the recent decision by the P.G.A. executive committee.

GRAINS OPEN LOW: RECOVER TOWARDS CLOSING POINT

Chicago, Aug. 14.—(P)—Grains recovered from an early sell-off on the Board of Trade today, in most cases moving above the previous closing prices.

The market had a case of jitters at the start following an overnight statement by a high cabinet official that wheat exports this year should be substantially reduced from the level of the past two years. All grains opened on losses.

Most of the early selling, however, came from local trade sources, when it became apparent that outside interests were not selling, the market reversed its trend. The late rally was helped along by short covering from professional traders who had sold earlier in the session.

Wheat closed a lower to 1 higher. September 2.24 1/2-1, corn was 1 1/2 higher. September 1.68 1/2-1, oats were lower to 1 higher. September 73 1/2-1, soybeans were 1 cent higher, November 73 1/2-1.

Preliminary estimated receipts of grain in carlots here today: wheat 155; corn 95; oats 42; rye 8; barley 28; soybeans 2.

WRITER ASKED TO LEAVE

Cairo, Aug. 14.—(P)—The News-weekly Akhbar El Yom said today that the Egyptian government has asked Don Burke, correspondent for Time magazine to leave the country.

By Charles Bellatti

Every sport has its season. Interest in softball usually gives out about the end of August when football rightfully takes over. But in the last couple of years, September has provided better softball weather than June or July.

Jacksonville Recreation club officials announced Thursday, following their regular meeting, that softball won't end this year with the first of September. Jacksonville fans, denied the state tournament this season, will see the year's best softball played from September 12 to 16.

The community project is sponsored by the Jay Cees in cooperation with the Jacksonville Journal Courier.

The trip to St. Louis will be made by motor caravan. All drivers in Jacksonville who can furnish a car are requested to either sign up at the Journal Courier office, or to call in their car by phone.

Drivers will be admitted free of charge to the game. There will be some free parking space in the vicinity of the ball park.

The cars will load at the Academy lot at 10 a. m. (daylight time) on the 26th. They will then proceed by caravan to St. Louis. Police will escort the group all the way from the Academy lot to the ball park in St. Louis.

Children who make the trip should either bring their lunches or should bring enough money to buy their lunches in the ball park.

Attorney John Bellatti is chairman of the "Jacksonville Day" plans.

Cardinals Defeat Pittsburgh Jinx 6-3 Saturday

Pittsburgh, Aug. 14.—(P)—Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, Cardinal southpaw ace, today ended the Pittsburgh Pirate jinx which had extended to seven games, as St. Louis defeated the Buccos 6 to 3.

It was Brecheen's 14th win of the year against four losses and snapped a five-game Pirate win streak. The Cards had lost seven of their last eight games with the Pirates.

The Pirates' outliners Redbirds 12 to 7 but Brecheen showed his best in the clutch as the bucs left 13 runners stranded on the basepaths.

Fritz Ostermueller, aged Pittsburgh left-hander, started but was driven from the mound in the fourth by a five-hit barrage topped by Catcher Del Rice's grand slam home run.

Giants Win
Philadelphia, Aug. 14.—(P)—Sheldon Jones turned in his 11th victory of the season today as he hurled the New York Giants to a 3-1 conquest of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Jones yielded only seven hits in out-pitching the Phils' $25,000 bonus pitcher, Robin Roberts, Eddie Miller accounted for the Phils' lone run when he socked his 12th homer with two out in the second inning.

Braves Defeat Brooklyn
Boston, Aug. 14.—(P)—After almost kicking it away in the early innings the Boston Braves tonight rallied for three runs in the ninth inning and defeated the Dodgers 4-3, widening their lead over the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn clubs, which virtually are tied for second place, to four games.

The victory went to Nelson Potter, who received a tremendous ovation from the 32,457 paid fans as his ninth inning single kept the rally alive.

Olympics Officially End Saturday After 16 Days

Olympic Stadium, Wembley, Aug. 14.—(P)—The Olympic games ended today in golden sunshine and splendor, 16 days and 1,500,000 spectators after they were opened by Britain's King.

The Olympic torch which has blazed symbolically through the days and nights of a great sports spectacle was extinguished. The flags of competing nations were paraded as a vast throng of 80,000 stood with bared heads.

The British still are the masters of such pageantry. There was a haunting beauty to the closing of the games. A lump was in many a throat when there died upon the sunlit air the final strains of "God Save The King." For a minute the crowd stood still, seemingly not realizing it was over.

Proudest of all, standing there, seemed to be the Americans. For them it had been a glorious two weeks. They were carrying away the most gold medals—38—and the unofficial team championship with 682 points compared with 353 for second place Sweden.

The Olympic games were such a wondrous success it is difficult to realize tonight that there was great fear less than three weeks ago that they would flop.

The 80,000 and more who climbed the long hill leading to the Olympic stadium to say goodbye to the games might have been there for 16 days. They looked the same as the sun-baked throng which saw the opening. England has taken a terrific dip in showing the world that, despite its troubles, it still is a going concern.

Just before the red Olympic flame died out, J. Sigfrid Edstrom, a fine old Swede who walks assisted by a cane, climbed to a white rostrum and invited the youth of the world to attend the next games at Helsinki, Finland, in 1952. Edstrom is the international Olympic president.

Prior to the closing ceremony, the crowd for nearly four hours had watched the finest jumping horses in the world and their riders, almost equally skilled, fight it out in the final Olympics event—the prize de nations.

Mexico's superb horse and horsemen swept the event—for their first championship in the Olympics.

Valley Presters Eye Grid Season; Open Drills Soon

White Hall, (Special)—Illinois Valley conference schools are already eyeing the 21st football campaign. All eight clubs are planning to open rehearsals on Wednesday, Aug. 25.

Roodhouse is the defending champion. Coach Mason Campbell has lost six regular linemen, however, and will field a much lighter team.

Roodhouse has never lost a football game to Jerseyville and Greenfield has won from the Railroaders only twice since the beginning of the Ivy conference in 1928.

White Hall plays two loop opponents two times during the coming campaign, but only one tilt with each outfit will count in the standings. Carrollton and Roodhouse are the eleven having double dates with the Maroons.

The crucial game in the Ivy loop this season, from advance indications, will be: Roodhouse at Pittsfield, White Hall at Jerseyville, Pittsfield at White Hall, Jerseyville at Pittsfield, Roodhouse at White Hall and Pittsfield at Winchester.

The 1949 Greene county basketball tournament will be played early in February at the Carrollton High school gymnasium.

Primitive man used stones as ornaments, munitions, tools, currency, household equipment, and some of his objects of worship.

Swimming Styles

Coach Ray Daughters seems proud of these Olympic swimmers, Anne Curtis, left, Suzanne Zimmerman, center, and Jeanne Wilson. They represent America's tops in free-style, back stroke and breast stroke, respectively.

Yankees Have 14-3 Triumph Over Philadelphia

New York, Aug. 14.—(P)—Scoring eight runs in one inning, the New York Yankees rolled to a 14-3 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics today.

The Yanks exploded for eight runs in the second inning to enable Athletic-killer Vic Raschi to coast to his 15th victory of the season.

Yankee Manager Bucky Harris shook up his lineup, inserting catcher Yogi Berra in right field, Bobby Brown at third and shifting right-fielder Tom Henrich to first base.

The move paid dividends. Berra collected four of the Yankees' 17 hits and drove in two runs, scored twice and drove in a run. Brown collected two safeties, scored twice and knocked in a mate.

Joe DiMaggio belted his 25th homer and drove in four runs. DiMaggio also hit a two run single to become the first player in either circuit to drive in 100 runs this season. The Yankee Clipper now has batted in 102 runs, five more than he drove home during the entire 1947 season.

Line score:
Philadelphia ..... 000 110 010-3
New York ..... 080 110 10x-14

Indians Beat White Sox
Chicago, Aug. 14.—(P)—The Cleveland Indians moved a game and a half in front of the American league by beating Chicago White Sox, 4-2, before a ladies' day turnout of 11,705 persons here today.

The Indians scored four times in the first inning off Allen Gettel to gain their 10th victory in 12 games against Chicago. Steve Gromek, pounded for five doubles among Chicago's eight hits, gained his seventh victory with help from Russ Christopher.

Christopher took over with two out in the ninth after Taft Wright's pinch double and Apppling drew Gromek's fifth walk. He ended the game on Pat Seery's fly to Mitchell.

Line score:
Cleveland ..... 400 000 000-4
Chicago ..... 100 001 000-2

Boston Edges Senators
Washington, Aug. 14.—(P)—The Boston Red Sox moved into second place in the American league here today, clustering four runs off Mickey Haefner in the eighth inning to defeat Washington, 4-3.

Mickey Harris, second of three Boston pitchers, received credit for the victory, his fourth.

Line score:

Tigers Victors Over Browns
St. Louis, Aug. 14.—(P)—George Vico drove in seven runs with a home run, triple and a double to pace the Detroit Tigers to a 10 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Browns tonight.

Virt Trucks turned in a sparkling one-hit relief chore after starting pitcher Bill Pierce was battered out in the third inning.

BELGIANS HAVE DIM VIEW OF MARSHALL PLAN

Brussels.—(P)—Only 22.5 per cent of Belgians think they know precisely what the Marshall plan is, according to a check made by the Belgian sample poll plan, "Insoo." Fifty four and five tenths per cent think they have a faint idea of what its aims are, while 22.5 per cent admit they know nothing about the Marshall plan.

However the Marshall plan is approved by 54.5 per cent and disapproved by 5.3 per cent; 40.2 have no opinion to express.

But the approval of the Marshall plan is not always enthusiastic. One said, "We have to choose between the United States and Russia. I'd rather choose the United States in spite of the disadvantages it can bring." Another comment was: "The Americans are doing good business for themselves but how can we avoid it?"

Myers Bros. vs. Macomb Recorded For Tuesday; Reveal Slate For Week

Play in the Jacksonville Recreation club West Central Illinois Invitational softball tournament, which was postponed last June, will be resumed at Nichols Park diamond tonight with the three remaining first round contests.

The Amateur Softball Association's sectional playoff, which was tied at one game each by Myers Bros. and the Macomb Dodgers when the third tilt was raised out Friday, will be completed Tuesday night.

Card Girls Game
The Jacksonville Jay-Cee girls will oppose their top rivals, the Madison Furniture store girls of Springfield, in a special game on Wednesday night.

Postponed league games will be played as preliminaries contests on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The Invitational tournament championship contest will be played one week from tonight.

The above table of events was released Saturday by officials of the Jacksonville Recreation club after they had consulted managers of the various out-of-town aggregations entered in the invitational.

The three tournament contests which will be presented tonight should be packed with solid entertainment.

The 6:30 o'clock opener might steal the show. The House of Clay upset the Knights in a AA loop combat and the K. C. team will be out for revenge this evening.

Well Matched
The two 8 o'clock contestants are well matched, as fans who witnessed the district tournament know. Both Carrollton and Roodhouse have a host of backers here and the type of ball played by the two organizations insures some fireworks.

The Beardstown city league is currently deadlocked among a number of teams, and one of the leaders

T Formation Clips All-Star Single Wing Team
Evansville, Ill., Aug. 4.—(P)—The green clad "T" formations today ripped the red-bedecked single wing backs, 33-28, but the college all-star dress rehearsal for the Chicago Cardinals next Friday was more of a showdown between Notre Dame's Johnny Lujack and Mississippi's Chuck Conery.

Lujack's passing produced two "T" formation touchdowns, but Conery staged a triple threat demonstration which won most of the plaudits of a crowd of 23,450 at Dwyer Stadium.

The game, pitting football's two foremost offensive systems, was watched neutrally by all-star head coach Frank Leahy, who plans to use the double-barreled attack against the Cardinals before an expected 100,000 at Soldier Field Friday night.

Leahy's aides ran today's regulation game which was a rip-roaring contest with no holds barred. The lead changed hands seven times before Ollie Cline of Ohio State plunged four yards for the "T" formation's deciding touchdown with three minutes left.

Two opposing fullbacks, Notre Dame's Floyd Simmons of the "T" formation team and Pennsylvania's Luongo of the single wing, led the scoring with two touchdowns apiece.

But it was the single wing, with his 52 yard pass to Tom Fears of UCLA and 32 yard touchdowns to Columbia's Bill Swiacki, both in the third period.

However, Conery completed eight of 10 passes, compared to Lujack's nine in 16 and was by far the game's best all-around performer with his slippery running and sharp defensive work, in addition to his passing.

The Jay Cees scored their two runs in the eighth off Marie Wadlow, considered the Peoria outfit's best tosser. An error, a walk and a hit resulted in the markers.

The Diesellees scored five times in the fourth on three hits and a pair of Jay Cee errors. A home run by Goll in the sixth accounted for two of the other three runs.

SATCHEL PAIGE PLAYS GAME IN CHICAGO; TWO MEN LAND IN JAIL

Chicago, Aug. 14.—(P)—Two men landed in jail today—and 18 persons were injured—because Satchel Paige pitched in Chicago.

The Negro hurler's appearance with the Cleveland Indians against the Chicago White Sox last night pulled the third largest crowd in Comiskey Park history—31,013 paid admissions.

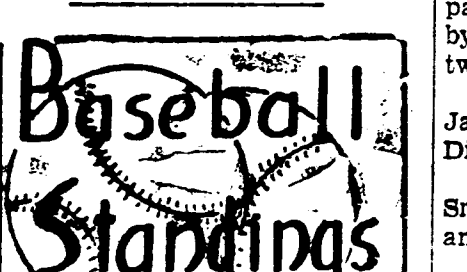

But an estimated 30,000 persons were turned away.

Police Lt. Terry Donohue took one look at the gathering crowd, long before game time, and called for extra police.

The crowds kept coming. They smashed through one turnstile. Hundreds with tickets, arriving late, fought, pushed and jammed in an attempt to get in.

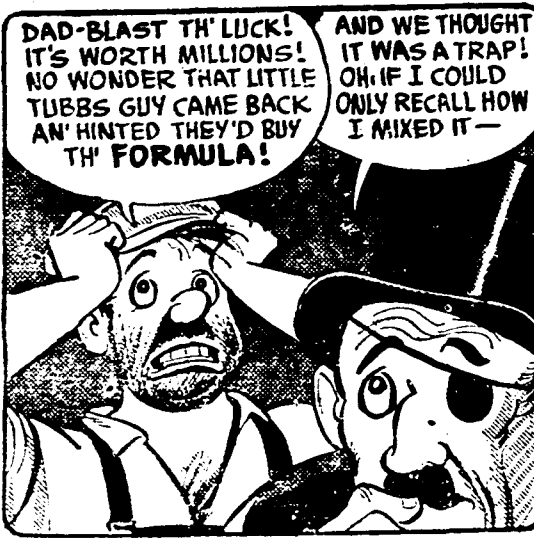

Eighteen persons who suffered bruises or cuts were treated at nearby hospitals or first aid stations.

Two men, one charged with disorderly conduct and one with resisting arrest and disorderly conduct, were booked today for appearance in court Monday.

ISABEL WILSON arrived at Police Headquarters a bit breathlessly in response to Lieutenant Talant's invitation. She used only the edge of the large chair beside his desk, and her teeth fretted her trembling lips.

"You've arranged at the bank, Miss Wilson, to have the remainder of the day off?" Talant queried.

"Yes, Lieutenant."

"Are you familiar at all with Mr. Sterling's home in Clifton?"

"With some of it. I've been out there often doing Mr. Sterling's work, during the last month when he didn't feel able to come down."

"That's fine. After all, it is to be your house, isn't it, as part of the residue of his estate?"

"Truly, that's embarrassing to me, Lieutenant. I can't account for Mr. Sterling doing that."

"But he had no near kin... no natural heirs. I imagine he was glad to show his appreciation of your long, loyal service. Now, Miss Wilson, at the time his wife was... when she died... did Mr. Sterling turn over any special duties to you?"

"I can't recall anything special."

"There was something he mailed you from Edgecraft Country Club that morning, wasn't there?"

"Some fine material he had with him, yes," Miss Wilson's fingers tightened their hold on the arms of her chair.

"Do you recall returning that material to him?" Talant asked.

"Yes, I returned it."

"When? In what way?"

"Miss Wilson wet her lips. 'Well, he had phoned me on Saturday morning to meet him at the florist, to help select flowers for the funeral, and he suggested that I bring that material with me.'"

"Just suggested?"

"Really, Lieutenant, this is difficult for me."

"It has a definite purpose, Miss Wilson, so try to bear up. So you returned the material to Mr. Sterling at the florist's?"

"Yes, I gave it to him. There was no comment."

"Thank you. Then what did you do for him?"

"Just a simple errand. He gave me a package to deliver and I was to pick up a roll of newspapers for him."

"To whom... and from whom?"

"I don't... oh! I delivered the package to a Mr. Davenport at the Crosstown Hotel, and he gave me the roll of newspapers."

you saw him? Were your deliveries made to him personally?

"Yes, Lieutenant, invariably to him personally in the lobby of the hotel, and I should know him if I saw him."

Talent eased back in his chair. "Miss Wilson, please relax. All of this has been enlightening. Now I'm going to ask you to help me."

RICHARD TRAPGOOD made no secret of his state of mental turmoil when he entered Talant's office a few minutes after Miss Wilson had gone.

"Chris, I had to see you before another sleepless night," Trapgood said. His eyes were almost wildly pleading and there were deep hollows beneath them. "We just got back from our trip. I let Janet drive on home alone. I had to come here first."

"Sit down. I'm glad you came."

Trapgood disregarded the invitation. He leaned forward with his hands on Talant's desk. "I've got to get right to the point, Chris. You've got something on Janet. You came over to my office Thursday to talk about it, but ran out on me because Janet was there, because of what happened. But that cigar she dropped, you took it with you, didn't you? I looked for it. Pete's sake, Chris, that can mean only one thing. You had just come from talking with Sterling at his death bed."

"Control yourself, Dick. I wanted you to enjoy your weekend."

"Enjoy it? It's been a living hell. Can't you see, Chris, that I've got to have the truth?"

"There isn't any question that you'll have to have the truth," Talant said, "but suppose you wait until we know the whole truth. Now get home to Janet, Dick. Have dinner with her. Talk about something else. Think about something else. You may get a call from me tonight. I may ask you to come out... to bring Janet. Do it my way, won't you, Dick?"

"Okay, Chris. I guess I'm making a fool of myself."

Talent got up, walked to the door of his office with Trapgood, gave him a pat of encouragement he himself was trying to feel.

you saw him? Were your deliveries made to him personally?"

"Yes, Lieutenant, invariably to him personally in the lobby of the hotel, and I should know him if I saw him."

Talent eased back in his chair. "Miss Wilson, please relax. All of this has been enlightening. Now I'm going to ask you to help me."

"Thank you. Then what did you do for him?"

"Just a simple errand. He gave me a package to deliver and I was to pick up a roll of newspapers for him."

"To whom... and from whom?"

"I don't... oh! I delivered the package to a Mr. Davenport at the Cross-town Hotel, and he gave me the roll of newspapers."

"What did Mr. Sterling do with the roll of newspapers?"

"He put them in a drawer of his desk. I doubt that he ever looked at them."

"Do you know what was in the package you delivered?"

Miss Wilson's brows gathered. "Certainly not, Lieutenant."

"Talent smiled. 'You must please try to be patient with me, Miss Wilson,' he said. 'Now, you remember the name Davenport?'"

"The Cross-town Hotel just from that one instance, do you?"

"No, that isn't correct, Lieutenant."

"Oh, you made other deliveries to this Mr. Davenport?"

"Yes, I think he became an investment client."

"But you only think that. You don't know what you delivered to him for Mr. Sterling at any time?"

"No, I haven't any idea."

Talent rubbed his chin. "When did you make those other deliveries to Mr. Davenport?"

"Well, they began right after the end of 1940. That first occasion, you remember, was in May, 1940. It was each month of 1941."

"Yes, I'm sure of that, because Mr. Sterling went into the Marines in December, 1941... it was each month of 1941 that I took an envelope to Mr. Davenport."

Talent smiled disarmingly before he followed with his next question. "Miss Wilson, would you recognize Mr. Davenport if

DeKalb Seed Corn District Salesmen Greet Manager

Dale Kincannon, district sales manager for the DeKalb Crop Improvement association, was introduced to the local salesmen of the 15 counties in the Jacksonville district at a dinner held Saturday noon at the Dunlap hotel.

Mr. Kincannon is from southeastern Nebraska. He succeeds Joe Boyle, who resigned recently to take over the Jacksonville Novelty shop on E. State street.

Mr. Boyle introduced the new district manager at the dinner Saturday.

Present at the meeting was Harold Nolin of DeKalb, supervisor of the east regional district. Mr. Kincannon will maintain the district office in Jacksonville.

CZECH BLACK MARKET FUGHT
Prague — (AP) — Czechoslovakia's special police force to deal with black marketeers reported it had filed 17,082 charges in the first six months of operations. The force, known as the "Economic Control Service," said 1,895 of the charges were for major offenses and were being tried by special courts. The others were settled in police courts and resulted in fines totalling about $900,000.

Among the items seized from the black market operators were textiles, clothing, knitted goods, bricks, flour, wheat, potatoes, cattle, pigs, eggs, butter, sugar, chocolates and alcoholic beverages.

City Bus Driver Named "Courteous Driver"

Many Jacksonville citizens will be surprised to hear that Saturday's Courteous Driver winner was a bus driver. But they won't be any more surprised than Kenneth Cox, the winner. He was awarded $5 for his courteous and careful driving. He observed that he never thought a bus driver would be even considered.

Cox lives at 1005 Duolin avenue. He is married and is the father of three children. He has lived in Morgan county all his life. Cox has been employed by the City Bus Lines for the past 14 months.

Saturday's judges were all members of the Optimist club. They were County Judge Paul Fenstermaker, John T. Taylor, the Rev. H. H. Koppelman, and Wayne Carter of the police department.

As the committee left the courthouse they noticed two City buses stopped at the corner taking passengers. They followed one of them until it came back to the bus stop on the north side of the square. During that time the Optimists had ample opportunity to observe the conduct of the bus driver.

The driver, later identified as Cox, kept his bus at a moderate speed at all times and was respectful of other cars and passing pedestrians. At one place on his route the street was cluttered with small children playing with a Soap Box Derby car. Cox slowed down and drove close to the opposite curb to insure that he would not hit any of the children.

As Cox came onto the public square at the end of his route he kept close to the outside and did not cause undue trouble to other drivers.

CZECH UNIONS BLAST TARDY WORKERS
Prague — (AP) — Strenuous efforts are being made to reduce absenteeism and late arrival for work in Czechoslovakia's nationalized industries. Premier Antonin Zapotocky has denounced late-comers as "saboteurs" of the nation's economic efforts.

Propaganda is the chief weapon being used in an effort to cut down these figures. At some factories, loudspeakers have been set up, with a union leader at the microphone. Late arrivals may hear something like this: "Well, Comrade Svoboda, we hope this will be the last time you are late for work" or "Oh, Miss Cerna, we cannot imagine what made you 15 minutes late today."

Storms, Floods Sweep Europe; Britain Hit Hard
London, Aug. 14. — (AP) — Storms and floods spread extensive damage and hardship across much of Britain and continental Europe today.

Britain was the hardest hit. Rivers swollen by heavy, unseasonable rains spilled into farmlands, villages and towns. Five main line railroad bridges and at least four highway spans were swept away by floods in the English-Scottish border country.

In some 1,000 square miles of north England and southern Scotland, roads were blocked by landslides. Homes and farm buildings were carried away, livestock lost, crops and industrial property and machinery were destroyed or damaged by the swirling waters.

Scores of persons—from an eight week old baby to a 76-year-old man—were marooned on rooftops for hours.

Property damage was estimated at $4,000,000 or more. But agriculture ministry officials said crops still would be good if the weather improved. Farmers took a less optimistic view. Some described crop losses as "catastrophic."
